

Live What You Believe

Human Rights and Religious Freedom Training

LIVE WHAT YOU BELIEVE is a 60-minute eCourse which equips leaders and influencers to support freedom of religion or belief in their workplace and community. The online training, which includes 4 short films, explores how freedom of belief is good for peaceful, prosperous, and thriving societies.

In the docudrama training, experts share how freedom of faith contributes to peace-building, gender equality, and business innovation. LIVE WHAT YOU BELIEVE educates, empowers, and equips participants about the benefits of freedom of belief, religion and conscience (UDHR, Article 18).

"Cultivating freedom of belief unleashes creativity and innovation which is needed more than ever in our increasingly global world."

- Jacqueline Isaac, International Attorney

80% of the population lives with restrictions on freedom of belief
